THE PROFESSORS

Eva KISS, holder of the Certificat d'Aptitude, taught singing at the Conservatoire de la Région d'Annecy in France. She has sung throughout Europe, in oratorios, in chamber ensembles and as a soloist.

Anastase DEMETRIADES, in addition to his important pedagogical activity (teaching, conservatory direction, workshops), has also carried out intense concert activities around Europe and made recordings for records, radio and TV.

Georges KISS created the harpsichord class at the Annecy Conservatoire in France. He recorded the complete harpsichord works of Duphy and edited works by Hassler and C.P.E. Bach. One of the most famous harpsichordists, he has performed more than 2'000 concerts worldwide.

Luca TACCARDI has always dedicated himself to the research of early music and performs in various chamber music ensembles and as a soloist, both as a cellist and as a violist da gamba. He teaches at the Sfom in Aosta.

EARLY MUSIC EASTER WORKSHOP

MAGNANO (Italy)
7 to 10 April 2023

Singing – Recorder – Cello – Viola da Gamba Strings – Harpsichord

The main purpose of this workshop is to provide an artistic experience, making more dynamic the technical work carried out in the Music Schools.

Students receive two half-hour lessons per day and can attend all other courses as auditors. They can also discover and play all the keyboard instruments on the workshop and practice chamber music with singers, string players, flute players and harpsichordists.

In the enchanting village of Magnano, the workshop offers excellent accommodation conditions.
